Mont St. Michel Abbey Restored.
Tourists who visit Mont Saint-Michel off the coast of Normandy, will find the Benedictine abbey which crowns its summit restored for worship. As early as the Eighth century Mont Saint-Michel, possessed religious associations, but the present buildings only date from the Thirteenth to the Sixteenth century. The height of the church exceeds the height of the rock upon which it stands 105 feet, and the granite of which it is built was brought by boat from the Isles of Chausey and hoisted up the steep side of the hill. Since 1874 the Mont has been under the care of architects appointed by the Ministry des Beaux-Arts, and by their research and restoration the abbey fortress now appears in almost its former grandeur. void's sister, Mrs. John Williams, in teen weeks in Miss Preston's room were: Helen Humphrey, Norma Jones, sent one day, Sherman Baker and Ella dainty basket filled with candy was given to Ella Morgan, daughter of Mr.

Christmas tree was held Monday night at the town hall. The tree was laden with good things which pleased the old

Lone Ranger Exercises Memory.

Alone as a forest ranger in a remote section of the Cascade mountains, in the state of Washington, George Kil-gere, a former University of Washington student, has memorized practically all of the New Testament and three books of poems. In addition to the mental exercise he has completed an entire dining room set of buffet, ten table, dining table, six chairs and a fern pedestal from hand split and hewn fir and cedar wood. The furniture polished in its natural color is worth more than his year's salary.
In three winter months Kilgere trapped near his cabin more than $500 worth of pelts.

Accent on Scream.

All agreed that she was an exceedingly pretty girl. Her dresses were in the latest mode. Men were irresistibly attracted to her. The only drawback was her deafness, a serious handicap. One admirer after another called, perhaps attended her to some social affair, but in the end they all fell away. The news that she was engaged to be married naturally impressed her friends. Two old admirers were discussing the news.

"It must have been funny proposing to a deaf girl like her," said one.

"Funny! I'll say so," said the other.
"It must have been a scream."—New York Times.

preparing the music.

LIGHT ON PREHISTORIC RACE

Scientist Explains How He Expects to Determine Age of Ancient Central American Cities.

Prehistoric ruins in America will soon be accurately dated. This was the opinion expressed in an address on "The Chronological Yardstick of Ancient America," by Sylvanus G.
Mortley of the Carnegie Institute of Washington, before the twentieth international congress of Americanists.

Doctor Mortley's "yardstick" is the marvelous Mayan calendar by which the ages of the ancient cities of Guatemala and Yucatan will eventually be determined more accurately than the ages of the cities of ancient Egypt.

There was a desultory trading in Mayan pottery carried on with the peoples in Mexico, Peru and the southwestern United States. This pottery found among these other peoples and its Mayan date determined by comparison with similar pottery in Central America may lead to an approximately accurate date being set upon the cliff dwellings of the United States and ruins in Peru and Mexico, Doctor Morley thinks.

He also told of his researches into the great walled city of Tulum, in Yu-catan. The walling of a city was exceptional in Central America and this fortified town on a bluff overlooking the Caribbean sea, with a wall on three land sides, represents the crude work which followed the breakdown of the great Mayan civilization in the Fifteenth century after Christ, when these early city-states fell to fighting their own race.—By Science Service.

Sure of His Job.

"Solomon has a great reputation for wisdom."

"How do you suppose he got that way?"

"Maybe he had ample leisure to cultivate his mind. Unlike modern rulers he didn't have to keep his ear to the ground all the time to find out whether he'd die with his crown on or soon be writing home for money."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Frozen Eggs All Right.

Frozen eggs are good eggs. So concludes S. K. Robinson of Chicago after finding that microscopic examination, freezing test, incubation, shaking test, and effect of air and light tests were met as well by the solidified as by the fresh egg. He declares that the mayonnaise dressing which held well in a warm room for 30 days had been made from the refrigerated product.

Unless Humanity Changes.

"Do you think that the troubles between capital and labor will ever be permanently adjusted?"

"I don't know," replied Senator Sorghum. "I'm afraid there will always be people who want work without paying for it and other people who will want pay without working for it."

Linguists in the Spirit World.

"How was the seance?"
"A great success. Mine Hokus materialized Napoleon Bonaparte, Marie Antoinette and Julius Caesar."

"Quite a distinguished gathering."

"Yes, and I was not aware until after the seance started that all three could speak English fluently."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

BRACE UP!

Do you feel old before your time? Is your back bent and stiff? Do you suffer urinary disorders? Don't despair—profit by Middlebury experiences.
Middlebury people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Ask your neighbor.
Here's a Middlebury resident's statement.

Mrs. Napoleon LaPan, 71 Seymour st., says: "I can certainly say a good word for Doan's Kidney Pills because they worked wonders for me whenever I used them. My kidneys became dis-ordered from overwork around the house and I suffered with a queer sort of pain across my hips and knees. My kidneys acted too often and caused annoyance. Mornings when I got up I felt languid and worn out. Somehow I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and started their use four years ago and have used them occasionally when needed. I get the best of results from Doan's."

The above statement was given September 18, 1916 and on April 15, 1920 Mrs. LaPan said: "I still think Doan's Kidney Pills are the best kidney tonic in the world. My former statement still holds good."
